

Security

- cPHulk Management on the Command Line
- Download Security
- Guide to SSL
- How to Adjust Cipher Protocols
- How to Configure Microsoft Windows 7 to use TLS Version 1.2
- How to Configure MySQL SSL Connections
- How to Create a ModSecurity Vendor
- How to Create a Report Receiver API for the ModSecurity Rule Reports
- How to Determine Password Strength
- How to Harden PHP
- How to Harden Your cPanel System's Kernel
- How to Manually Remove the cPanel-Provided Hardened Kernel
- How To Mitigate Slowloris Attacks
- How to Prevent cPanel Users from Creating Certain Domains
- How to Reset a cPanel Account Password
- How to Reset a cPanel Subaccount Password
- How to Troubleshoot Jailshell Problems on a Virtuozzo or OpenVZ VPS
- How to Use cPanel API Tokens
- More about TLS and SSL
- OWASP ModSecurity CRS
- PCI Compliance and Software Versions
- Recommended Security Settings
- Security Levels
- The ModSecurity Guardian Log
- The SSL Installation and Precedence Logic
- Tips to Make Your Server More Secure
- Troubleshoot SSL-Related Issues

Overview

The documents in this section describe advanced procedures that will help you increase your server's security and prevent malicious attacks.

If you need help with any of these processes, open a technical support ticket.

Warning:

Some of the documents in this section describe dangerous procedures or unsupported workarounds that we do not guarantee will work in the future. Exercise caution when you execute the steps in these documents.

Important information

Before you execute the steps in any of this section's documents, we strongly suggest that you understand the following information:

- These documents do not account for any additional changes or customizations to your server.
- We only tested the instructions in these documents on default installations of CentOS and Red Hat® Enterprise Linux®.

Additional documentation

Suggested documentation For cPanel users For WHM users For developers

- Man-in-the-Middle Attacks
- Security
- Important Notices
- How to Use cPanel API Tokens
- How to Configure Your Firewall for cPanel Services

Error rendering macro 'contentbylabel' : parameters should not be empty

- How to Configure Your Firewall for cPanel Services
- Basic Security Concepts
- How to Purchase an Imunify360 License
- How to Install KernelCare
- Additional Security Software

- WHM API 1 Functions - fetch_security_advice
- WHM API 1 Functions - installssl
- WHM API 1 Functions - get_autossll_log
- WHM API 1 Functions - get_autossll_providers
- WHM API 1 Functions - get_autossll_pending_queue